

ALFRED LOUPE, LPN

Al Loupe, LPN is a graduate of Delgado Community College School of Nursing. After graduation Al spent two years as a floor nurse at the University Hospital, New Orleans, LA in the infectious disease unit. He then spent 4 years at the HIV Outpatient Program (HOP) working with patients who were HIV+. Al joined CresentCare in 2014 as a nurse in the primary care clinic of CresentCare Health and Wellness Center. Al recently took the position of PrEP Clinic Care Coordinator at CresentCare Health and Wellness Center. Al coordinates scheduling, patient access, patient retention, data coordination, and acts as a liaison among various departments to ensure timely access to PrEP.