

REGINALD VICKS, RN, BSN, MBA

Mr. Vicks is Chief Operations Officer at CrescentCare in New Orleans, Louisiana. With more than 27 years of healthcare leadership experience, he oversees and monitors the agency's multisite specific programs and operations. Mr. Vicks is a registered nurse with experience in healthcare management in both acute care and community-based settings. His professional background includes direct patient care and nursing management. Prior to CrescentCare, he was Director of the Emergency Department and Critical Care for New Orleans East Hospital.

Mr. Vicks brings experience in operations, policy and procedure development, staffing management, and equipment procurement, as well as training, research, and the use of an evidence-based practice model of care delivery. His experience with start-up processes, as New Orleans and its hospitals rebuilt after Hurricane Katrina, assists CrescentCare as it continues to expand.
