

Matthew A. McQuillan, MS, PA-C

Mr. McQuillan joined the PA Program's faculty in 1998 and is currently an Associate Professor and Associate Director. He received his undergraduate degree in Communications and Business from St. John's University and is a 1996 graduate of Rutgers University Physician Assistant Program. He is currently pursuing a Doctorate in Medical Humanities (D.M.H.) at Drew University. In addition, Mr. McQuillan continues to see patients as a volunteer clinical provider at Rutgers HOPE Clinic in Plainfield, NJ. He is a contributing author to several physician assistant publications and review books including Appleton and Lange's Review for the Physician Assistant and Comprehensive Review for the Certification and Recertification Examination for Physician Assistants. In 2002, Mr. McQuillan was awarded the Excellence in Teaching Award from the UMDNJ School of Health Related Professions. Mr. McQuillan is active in several PA organizations having served on both state and national committees with the PAEA, AAPA, ARC-PA and NJSSPA.