

Carol M. Odell, FNP

Senior Instructor, Lead Advanced Practice Provider
University of Colorado Department of Family Medicine
Denver, Colorado

Carol Odell, FNP, is a family nurse practitioner at the University of Colorado, where she practices at the A.F. Williams Family Medicine Clinic. At this site, she serves as preceptor for the family nurse practitioner students in their final family practice rotation. She is faculty in the University of Colorado Department of Family Medicine and adjunct faculty in the University of Colorado Graduate School of Nursing.

Ms. Odell earned her MSN degree at the University of Missouri. After completed a primary care and women's help fellowship at The University of Chicago, she remained there as the clinical director of the Student Care Center.

At the University of Colorado, Ms. Odell also serves as the Lead Advanced Practice Provider for the Department of Family Medicine. She is involved in several committees and initiatives related to team-based healthcare and improving patient outcomes.

She is a member of the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners and is a board certified Family Nurse Practitioner.