

Liza W. Claus, Pharm.D., BCACP

Assistant Professor

Department of Clinical Pharmacy

University of Colorado Skaggs School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences

Assistant Professor

Department of Family Medicine

University of Colorado School of Medicine

Aurora, Colorado

Dr. Liza Claus is an Assistant Professor with the Department of Clinical Pharmacy at the University of Colorado Skaggs School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences. Her clinical practice site is the A.F. Williams Family Medicine Center, the primary family medicine residency training site for the University of Colorado School of Medicine, where she is actively engaged as a member of the interdisciplinary care team. At this site, the Clinical Pharmacy Team provides a consult-based service for a wide variety of ambulatory disease states and dedicates time to interprofessional education.

Dr. Claus received her Doctorate of Pharmacy degree from the University of Missouri – Kansas City. She completed a postgraduate year 1 (PGY1) Community Pharmacy Residency at the University of Mississippi School of Pharmacy in Jackson, Mississippi followed by a PGY2 Ambulatory Care/Family Medicine Specialty Residency at the University of Colorado. Dr. Claus is board certified in ambulatory care. Her interest areas include osteoporosis, rheumatology, women’s health, and the evaluation and innovation of clinical pharmacy services. She is a member of the American Society of Health-System Pharmacists, the American College of Clinical Pharmacy, the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy, and the Society of Teachers of Family Medicine.