

Scott Price, MD, Vice Chair, Department of Radiology, Cancer Treatment Centers of America

Dr. Price completed an internship and residency in radiology at the Duke University Medical Center in Durham, NC. He also completed a fellowship in interventional radiology from the University of Pennsylvania Medical Center in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Prior to joining CTCA, Dr. Price spent over 10 years as an interventional radiologist at Doylestown Hospital in Doylestown, Pennsylvania, where he later served as the chairman of the Department of Radiology. He also served as chairman of the Department of Radiology at Central Montgomery Medical Center in Lansdale, Pennsylvania. Dr. Price has published works and given presentations on percutaneous cholecystotomy and spinal cord afflictions.

Dr. Scott Price currently serves as vice chair of the department of radiology at Cancer Treatment Centers of America and as medical director of radiology for the CTCA hospital in Philadelphia. Dr. Price has expertise in treating tumors of the spine and liver.