

Vivek Iyer, MD
Medical Director, Pain Management
Cancer Treatment Centers of America, Goodyear, AZ

Dr. Iyer earned his Bachelor of Science in Molecular Genetics at The Ohio State University in Columbus. He completed his Doctor of Medicine at the University of Cincinnati's College of Medicine. After his internship at the Medical College of Virginia, Dr. Iyer completed a residency in Anesthesiology at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, followed by a fellowship in Pain Medicine at the same institution. In 2007, he joined a regional pain management group in Ohio, where he provided anesthesia and other pain management care. In 2015, Cincinnati Magazine named Dr. Iyer one of Cincinnati's Top Doctors in Pain Management. He joined CTCA in March 2015. Dr. Iyer is Board Certified in Anesthesiology and Pain Medicine by the American Board of Anesthesiology. He is licensed to practice medicine in Ohio and Arizona. Dr. Iyer is a member of the American Society of Anesthesiologists, the American Society of Interventional Pain Physicians and the American Medical Association.