

Larry Ladi, MD, FCCP
Intensivist
Cancer Treatment Centers of America, Tulsa, OK

Dr. Ladi completed a Bachelor of Science degree in microbiology from the University of Houston. He received his medical degree from Universidad Autónoma de Guadalajara School of Medicine in Guadalajara, Mexico. Dr. Ladi completed two residencies before finishing a fellowship in sleep medicine, followed by a fellowship in pulmonary disease and critical care medicine, serving as chief fellow, at Hahnemann University Hospital and Drexel University College of Medicine in Philadelphia. Dr. Ladi then completed fellowship training in interventional pulmonology at The Ohio State University, Wexner Medical Center in Columbus, Ohio. Dr. Larry Ladi joined CTCA in January 2017 and is board certified in pulmonary diseases, internal medicine and family medicine.