

Faculty Bio

Mihir M. Kamdar, MD

Associate Director, Division of Palliative Care
Director, Cancer Pain Clinic
Attending, Palliative Care and Anesthesia Pain Medicine
Massachusetts General Hospital
Harvard Medical School
Boston, Massachusetts

Dr. Mihir M. Kamdar is the Associate Director of the Division of Palliative Care and Geriatrics at Massachusetts General Hospital (MGH) and the Director of the MGH Cancer Pain Clinic. Trained in Internal Medicine at Brigham and Women's Hospital, he completed dual fellowships in both Palliative Care and Interventional Pain Medicine at MGH. He holds clinical appointments at the Department of Anesthesia, Critical Care and Pain Medicine as well as the Division of Palliative Care at MGH in addition to serving on the teaching faculty at Harvard Medical School.

Dr. Kamdar's clinical and research interests center on the design of innovative models of care delivery for pain management and palliative care, with a particular focus on refractory cancer pain. He is a nationally recognized thought leader, lecturer, and researcher in both palliative care and pain medicine.